Communication arts students heard from alumni how to succeed in the real world. About 80 students and 27 alumni attended the 11th annual Communication Arts Alumni Forum. Each year, communication arts return to their alma mater to talk about what they got from JCSU and how they made their education work for them.

Panelists this year included Alexzenia Davis, Sabrina Davis, Erica Hilton, Krista Terrell, Cemeka Lewis, Larry Mims, Jessica Williams, Taiia Smart Young, Carletta McMillan and Jonathan Young. Keith Cradle who graduated in 1997 organized the event.

The panelists participated in sessions on resume and portfolio building, social media, and what to do after graduation. The panel took place Friday, Oct. 31 in the Family Dollar Room.
